

The British-Estonian Chamber of Commerce invites you to a Business Breakfast

Maybe it's time to enter foreign markets?

Friday, 5 March at 9:00-10:30 at Radisson BLU Hotel, 2nd floor

While many SME companies would like to broaden their business through international markets, they are often unable to enter foreign markets on the same basis as large corporations.

The speaker:

Ken J. Davey MBA FCMA, Smarter International Trading, 'Matching' buyers and sellers in the UK; the Baltic & Nordic countries and Russia & the Commonwealth of Independent States Founder and Managing Director of Smarter Limited (London)

At the global level he has consulted for example Nokia, Nokia Siemens Networks, Thomson Reuters and Huhtamäki; while at the EMEA level his clients have included: AT&T, Canon, Deutsche Telekom and France Télécom.

Participation fee (incl full breakfast): 200 EEK
